TODAY'S MESSAGE: Welcome to Emmanuel; where we say, Come, Lord Jesus! God's words have a purpose in our lives to spur us to charity, good conscience, and unfeigned faith--not unbridled confusion! As we finish this chapter in Mark, today, we are better able to understand God's purpose for this present day of grace in which our relationship with God gives us confidence, assurance, and the ability to share the gospel with others.

MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH

Bob and Lisa Schwartz are our missionaries for July. They work with MMS Aviation, preparing people and planes for Worldwide Mission Service. These planes have to be in top shape in order to bring people and supplies to some remote areas of the world. Pray as they train new pilots. Also as they teach God's Word in Bible studies. Some of them need to learn the English language as well. Lisa works with women as they pursue God.
