TODAY'S MESSAGE: Welcome to Emmanuel; where we can be still, because we know He is God, where we can make a joyful noise, because He is the Rock of our Salvation! The perseverance of the Christian church beyond the destruction of the temple proved that the Jewish establishment was indeed fighting God. But the Jewish followers of Jesus knew that not only was their persecution by their brothers a sign of the temple's impending fall, it was something they must persevere through in order to receive the Kingdom of God. Jesus prepared them for this time with His instruction to let the Holy Spirit speak through them.

MISSIONARY OF THE MONTH

Barb and Tim Stevenson work with the Frontiers missionary sending agency in Portland, OR. Tim "catches" (recruits) candidates and Barb "cleans" (prepares and equips) them to serve in Muslim countries. From June 10-24 they both will be involved in their largest candidate school ever. Pray for discernment, wisdom, and ability to connect well and train the people (many with families) with whom they will work. Also pray for their three grown sons (Dane, wife, and baby, Ryan, and Soren) and their jobs and witness.
