TODAY'S MESSAGE: Welcome to Emmanuel; where we have a God that finds us. Oftentimes in life we find ourselves looking for things like wallets, keys, rings, phones, and we rejoice when we find them! But as good as it is to find something that has been missing, it is even better to be found when you have gone missing! Today we will see Jesus find Philip and Philip will then find Nathanael. There is an example here for us. Nathanael was surprised to discover that the Messiah was from all places, Nazareth. This was initially a hurdle for him. But he gave it a chance and went to meet Jesus for himself. How glad he was that he did! When we are sharing with someone who has a question we can't answer, we ought to encourage them all the more to seek Jesus for themselves.
